

Table of reportable crimes

Under section 316 of the Crimes Act 1900 (NSW), it is an offence to conceal a "serious indictable offence," and any such offences must be reported to the police. A serious indictable offence is one that is punishable by imprisonment for a period of 5 years or more. This table refers to serious indictable offences as "reportable crimes". Although all crimes can be reported, these crimes are required to be reported.
